Anchor Foreword . .

Looking over these great United States, we may be ever thankful that the horrors of Nazi occupied countries have never been imposed upon us. The people of America enjoy freedoms of which few other people can boast. America at war is a hard working nation with victory as her goal and a peaceful post war world in her heart. When this war-weary old world once again breathes a peaceful sigh, let us hope that the enslaved people of Europe shall enjoy the four freedoms of America.

In other countries, as in our own there will then be no danger that on Sunday mornings a group of storm troopers may break up the worship services. They shall worship as they see fit. Nor will there be want for food and clothing. They shall be well fed, and sheltered. Radios and newspapers shall be running strongly, and shall not be forced to publish only what the dictators want published. Our gift to them will be these:

Freedom of Religion, Freedom of Speech, Freedom from Fear, Freedom from Want.

Dedication

Throughout the years, the Anchor has come out twice annually with credit being given the editor and staff and the faculty advisor if it is good, and the responsibility laid at their feet, if it is bad. But good or bad, there has always been a faithful little man taking the activity pictures, and being generally useful when possible. He has stayed in the background up to now, and this term we intend to give credit where credit is due.

It is with sincere thanks for all he has done for us, that we, the staff of February 1945, dedicate this Anchor to

MR. OTTO H. WEISS

← Back from the grave.

MR. H. OTTO WEISS

To the Graduating Class of February '45

"For what is your life?" . . . James 4:14

You can soar to great heights living for God and humanity, or you can work for selfish ends and shrivel up into insignificance. Don't follow the crowd until you find out where the crowd is going. Strive that you may be the channel through which the Divine Spirit may flow.

Dream great dreams—then make those dreams come true. Let each day of your life count for something good, something worthwhile. As Elizabeth Browning said, "Light tomorrow with today." And another great philosopher and thinker said, "Keep your dreams intrepid few, the world has bitter need of you."

Never has the world needed new courage, high ideals more than it does today. The more you give in service to your fellow man and to God, the more richly you will be rewarded. You must dare to do right always! It will take courage and faith; and although sometimes the way may be rough and hard, the joy of accomplishment makes the effort worthwhile.

"Today is the loom on which we weave the variegated threads of yesterday into a glorious tomorrow."

I shall miss you—all of us in Newport News High School shall miss you because you have meant much to us.

Goodbye, dear seniors!

Always your friend,

Louise Hurt

MRS. LOUISE HURT

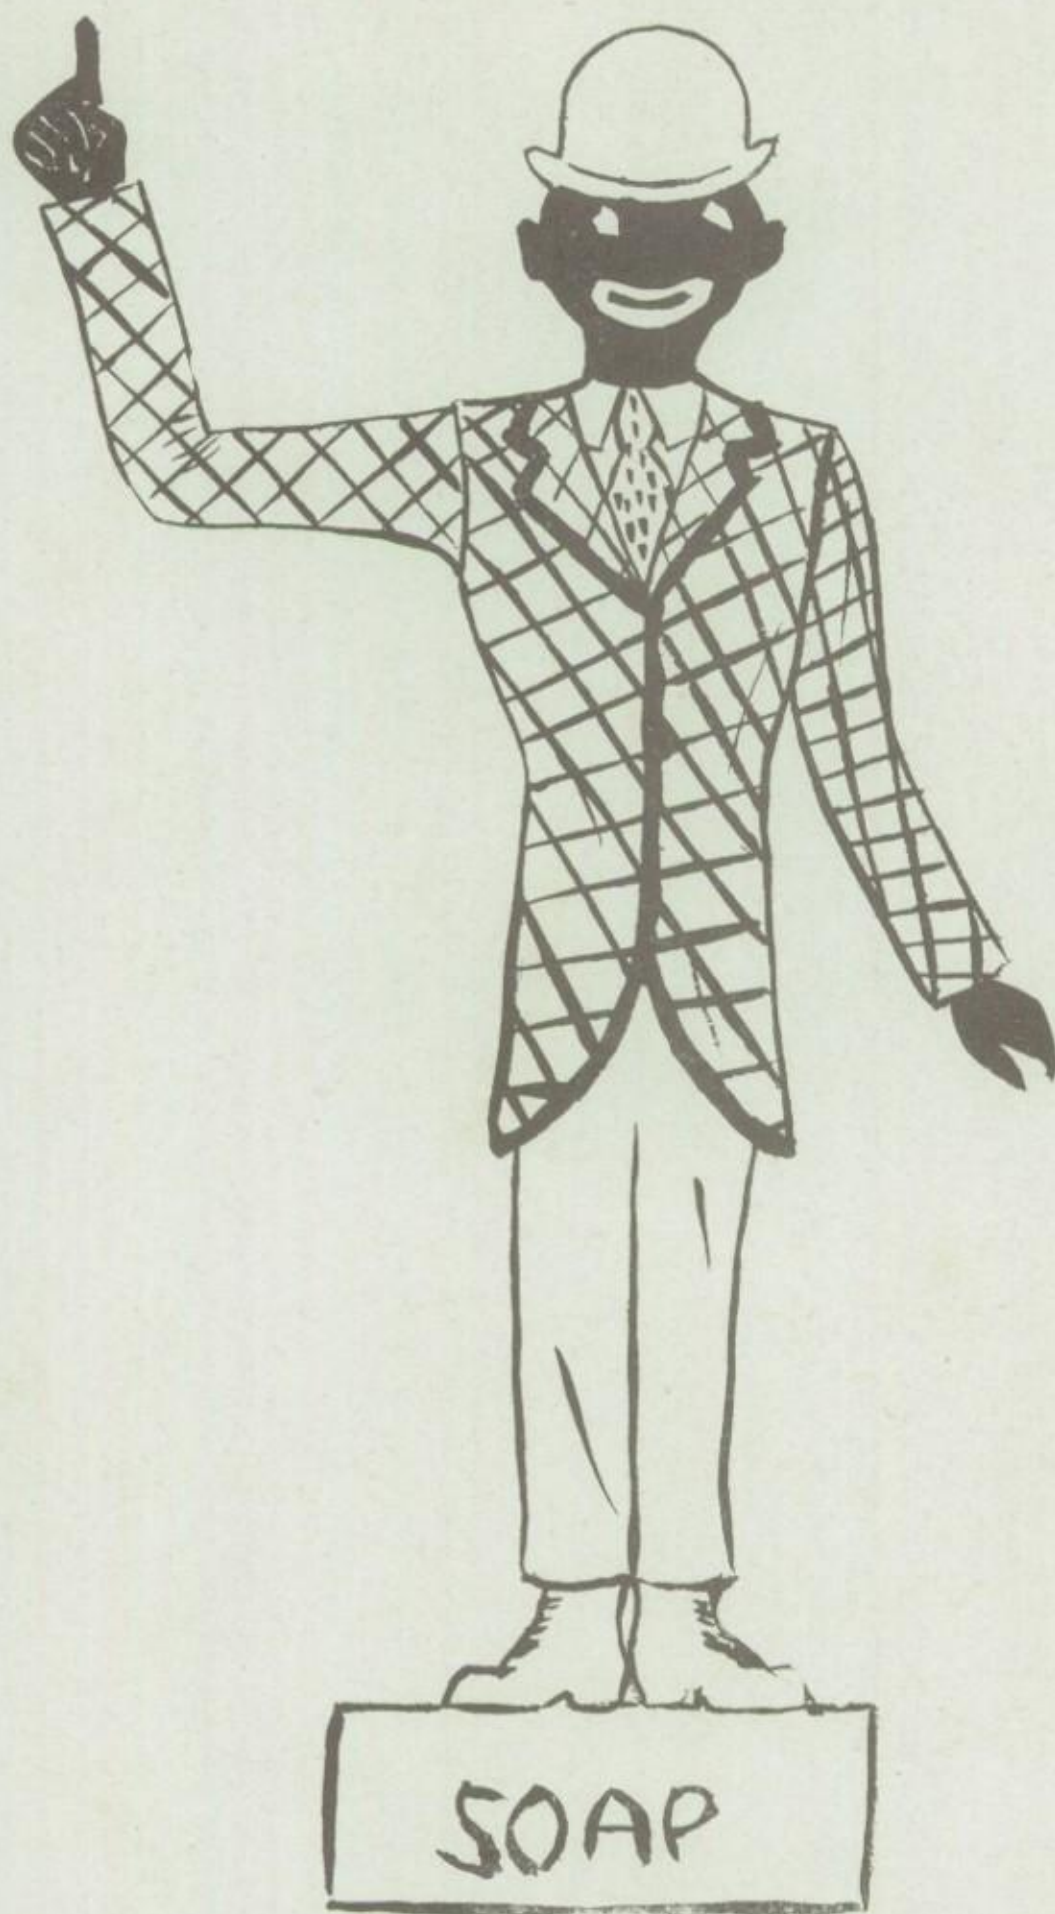

Honorary Dedication

Across the oceans, on other shores fighting for this land we all love so dearly are American boys of all races, creeds, and colors. We are thinking now particularly of those few who would have graduated with us in our class. And as we think of them, we can't help a feeling of sadness that comes over us. We would like to pay them a tribute as best we can, but there is no tribute quite high enough to show how they have paid.

From the bottom of our hearts, we, the staff, wish to give them this Anchor in honorary dedication, that it may in some small way show them how we feel. God bless them all, and speed the day when they may come home again.

FREEDOM OF SPEECH

I mean what I say - Good Luck and a lot of it!

CLASS SONG

"GOODBY"

We leave you here old Newport High
 With these last words we say goodbye.
 The joys we've had we'll ne'er forget
 And your teachings we'll ne'er regret.
 We leave our teachers thanks and love.
 And pray we'll carry on with help from above
 Outward bound with heads held high
 Never say no, never say die.

Music by Sylvia Cofer

Words by Florence Monfalcone.

BEACON WEEKLY STAFF

Rushing around, gathering news, and meeting deadlines, the ever faithful Beacon Weekly staff strives to act as the eyes and ears of the school and to provide students with a laugh now and then. The Co-Editors-in-Chief, Beulah Pair and Janet Davis who led the paper to its first class rating last semester were at it again this year with enthusiastic aim for an even better paper.

QUILL AND SCROLL

To become a member of the Quill and Scroll a student must do outstanding work on the Beacon Weekly. A member of the International Quill and Scroll, the local branch encourages higher standards of journalistic writing. Pictured above are Jack Ball, Herbert Bateman, Gene Markham, Stella Biconvaris, Shirley Linkous, Walter Stern, and Ruth Fuller. Absent members: Beulah Pair and Janet Davis.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

Acting as an advisory group to the Student Council, the Executive Board is composed of the officers of the student body, a representative from each class, and the Editor-in-Chief of the Beacon. These students, elected on the basis of intelligence and ability, under the capable leadership of Miss Ethel Gildersleeve, dean of girls, suggested projects and make plans for the council to carry out.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Led by Theodore Theodorsen, president; Kent Miller, vice-president; Billy Hilling, secretary; and Irvin Nachman, treasurer, the Student Council has sponsored three dances this semester for the school, continued work on the Service Honor Roll, proposed changes for the NNHS Constitution, and carried out other projects to make NNHS a better school. Its membership is composed of the Executive Board and one representative from each home room in the school. Miss Ethel Gildersleeve is sponsor of the Council.

HONOR COUNCIL

Helping the student body live up to its motto "An honest man's the noblest work of God," is the Honor Council. Private trials are held and verdicts passed on cases of cheating, stealing, or other dishonesty. Richard McMurren, chairman, presides and is assisted by Mr. P. W. Allen Raine, sponsor.

NATIONAL THESPIANS

Another unique organization around school is the National Thespians. As you should have already gathered, this is a dramatic organization. Membership is acquired through a credit system and by vote of old members. Very few students know much about this club. It is named after Thespis the first Greek actor to speak words on the stage. The members receive seals for their diplomas. Betty Harp is president and Miss Dorothy M. Crane is sponsor.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

Although there is no resemblance in looks, the Boys' Glee Club sounds like Sinatra multiplied. Miss Mildred Bane, director, teaches the boys to use their vocal chords in harmony. Popular songs as well as classics are included in their types of music.

MIXED CHORUS

Mixed Chorus means many things: rehearsals at 8:15 one morning a week, singing on the bus to and from a program, tryouts for new members, the carols and in Christmas Assembly. But more than these things which will live long in the boys' and girls' memories, they will always remember loyalty and devotion to an ideal, cooperation in an endless effort to create beautiful music, and always an attempt to serve the school. Miss Mildred Bane is director.

ORCHESTRA

Under the splendid leadership of Miss Eleanor Sherman, the orchestra has contributed much to the general pleasure of the school. It has been prominent at such performances as Senior Assembly, Class Night, Commencement, assemblies and plays.

BAND

"We can make such beautiful music together," could be the theme song of the faithful, "always ready" NNHS band. Not only can the organization make beautiful music, but it can do many, tricky marching formations on the football field between halves. Putting all the band members talents together to make it the top band of the State is Miss Eleanor Sherman, director.

SCIENCE CLUB

To further the interests of science in NNHS the Science Club was organized last semester. Individual projects are taken up by members in botany, geology, astronomy and biology, and presented to the club. Officers are Jay Sawyer, president; Thomas Vincent, vice-president; Nancy Reese, secretary; and George Watson, treasurer. Miss Susie V. Floyd is sponsor.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

Always on the job to help unfortunate people is the Junior Red Cross. This year, the club has devoted its time in doing everything possible for boys in the armed forces. Barbara Mae Mugler presided at the club meetings, assisted by the secretary, Agnes Handges. Miss Juliet C. Coleman is sponsor.

*You're a swell fellow.
I think you're cute, stay that way. Louise*

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

Student librarians help keep one of Virginia's finest high school libraries a smooth running business-like organization to help the student body find information and recreation. Miss Elizabeth Saunders and Miss Margaret Garland are the head librarians. The girls help each period during the day.

INFIRMARY ASSISTANTS

"Oh boy! What a headache! Guess the infirmary can fix me up." With a sigh, the student heads for the infirmary and when he arrives, one of the girls pictured below is always on hand for remedies. They treat such things as headaches, toothaches, cuts, scratches, bruises, fainting spells, indigestion and countless other ailments. After three consecutive semesters in the infirmary, a girl is entitled to a service letter.

OFFICE ASSISTANTS

You come to school tardy, are late to class, have lost a fountain pen, or you have been sent by a teacher to put a notice on the bulletin. Who do you see when any of the above finds you in the office? Why the office assistants, of course. They come at 8:30, are present every period, and stay until 5:00 just for you.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

"Double, double, toil and trouble; fire burn and cauldron bubble."

When he wrote these familiar lines, Shakespeare must have foreseen NNHS Chemistry Club members bent over their laboratory tables experimenting with sodium hypochloride or sulfur dioxide. These future chemists, doctors, and scientists are headed by Jack Daniel, president; Sara Forbes, vice-president; and Stella Bicouvaris, secretary.

LATIN CLUB

The Senatus Populusque Romanus, or the Latin Club, has been reviving and increasing interest in the "ways" of ancient Rome. Meetings are held once a month and there are two night socials a semester. Sitting in the foreground in Roman attire are the officers, Janet Davis, president; Sarah Forbes, vice-president; Frances Murray, secretary, and Charles Wicke, sergeant-at-arms. Miss Mabel Barham is sponsor.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

"No sacrifice is too great for art's sake."

Young, and we might add lovely, voices strive for perfection, and, achieving it, present the school with many a joyful hour. Concerts, assemblies and other programs are enlightened by these proteges of NNHS who are under the direction of Miss Mildred Bane.

LITERARY CLUB OFFICERS

Here they are: The Literary Club officers who, under the guidance of Richard McMurren, president and Mrs. Mae Marshall Edwards, sponsor, have, as usual, taken their active part in school and civic affairs this year. Outstanding in '44 for: pushing the school over the top in the Sixth War Loan Drive; for their War Loan Auction; and for their Pearl Harbor Assembly.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

"Golly! Are you in it? I wish I were!" Every term one hears such a remark as this when the new members are elected to the National Honor Society. The most outstanding students in all fields of activities are voted on by the faculty and the members are chosen that way. Membership in the organization is based on four things: scholarship, citizenship, leadership and service. Jack Daniels is president and Miss Eulah Massey is sponsor.

RETAIL SELLING CLUB

"Work, learn, and earn, join the Retail Selling Club." Their purpose is to build and develop a plan of life through a specific job in training in the retail selling field. Everyone in the picture is employed in some store and works every afternoon after school. It is part of their school work. Their president is Frances Coates.

GIRL RESERVES

Handwork, socials, programs, and banquets fill the Girl Reserves schedule during a semester. It is one of the oldest organizations around schools for girls. The meetings are held in the YWCA with Miss Jo Clyde Stern as sponsor,

SALUDOS AMIGOS!

The Cervantes Spanish club has as its purpose, the maintaining of Spanish culture in the American way of life. Sara Toobert is president; Mary Binder, vice president; Marguerite Cumming, secretary-treasurer; and Sam Allen, chaplain. Members are chosen from students of the Spanish languages. Senor Carlos Urrutia sponsors the club.

VARSITY CLUB

Any member in high school earning an athletic letter automatically becomes a member of the Varsity Club. The honorary club has no meetings except for awarding letters and formulating rules regarding wearing them. The members are "all for one and one for all." The club is sponsored by Miss Frances Mays and Julius Conn.

STAMP BOOTH

Here's where they did it. Over $32,000 in war stamps and bonds were sold here through salesmen provided by the Literary Club's citizenship committee under the direction of Constantine Tsitsera. Auction assemblies also boosted the sales.

STAMP WARDENS

The busiest people in school during organization period are stamp wardens. They buy stamps for their homerooms and make themselves generally useful. The stamp sales are under the supervision of Miss Lucy Sinclair.

JUNIOR GIRL'S BASKETBALL TEAM

Heaving baskets for the junior girls this term were Ann Swyer, Virginia Hudgins, Arlean Howell, Faye Council, Rita Fekas, Dolores Brown, Juanita Williams, and Agnes Hanges.

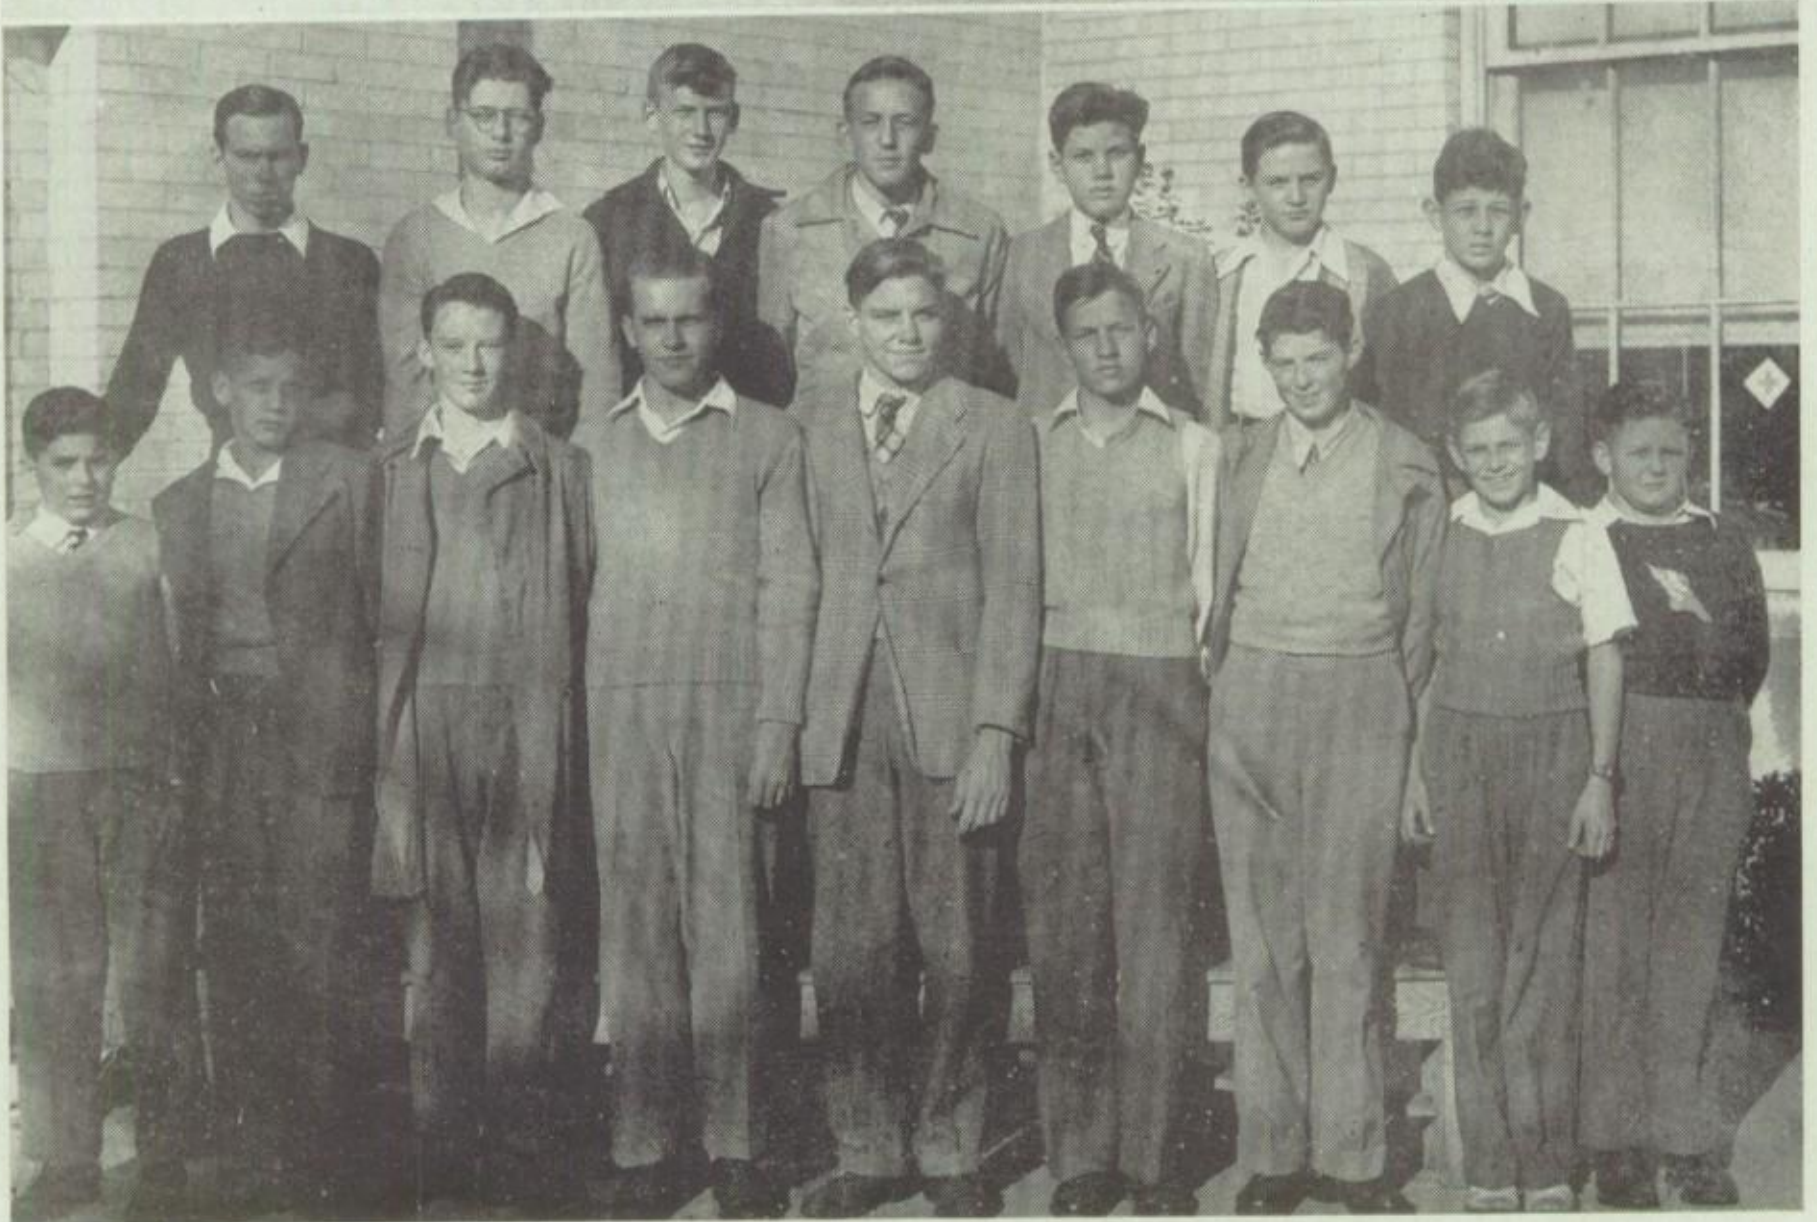

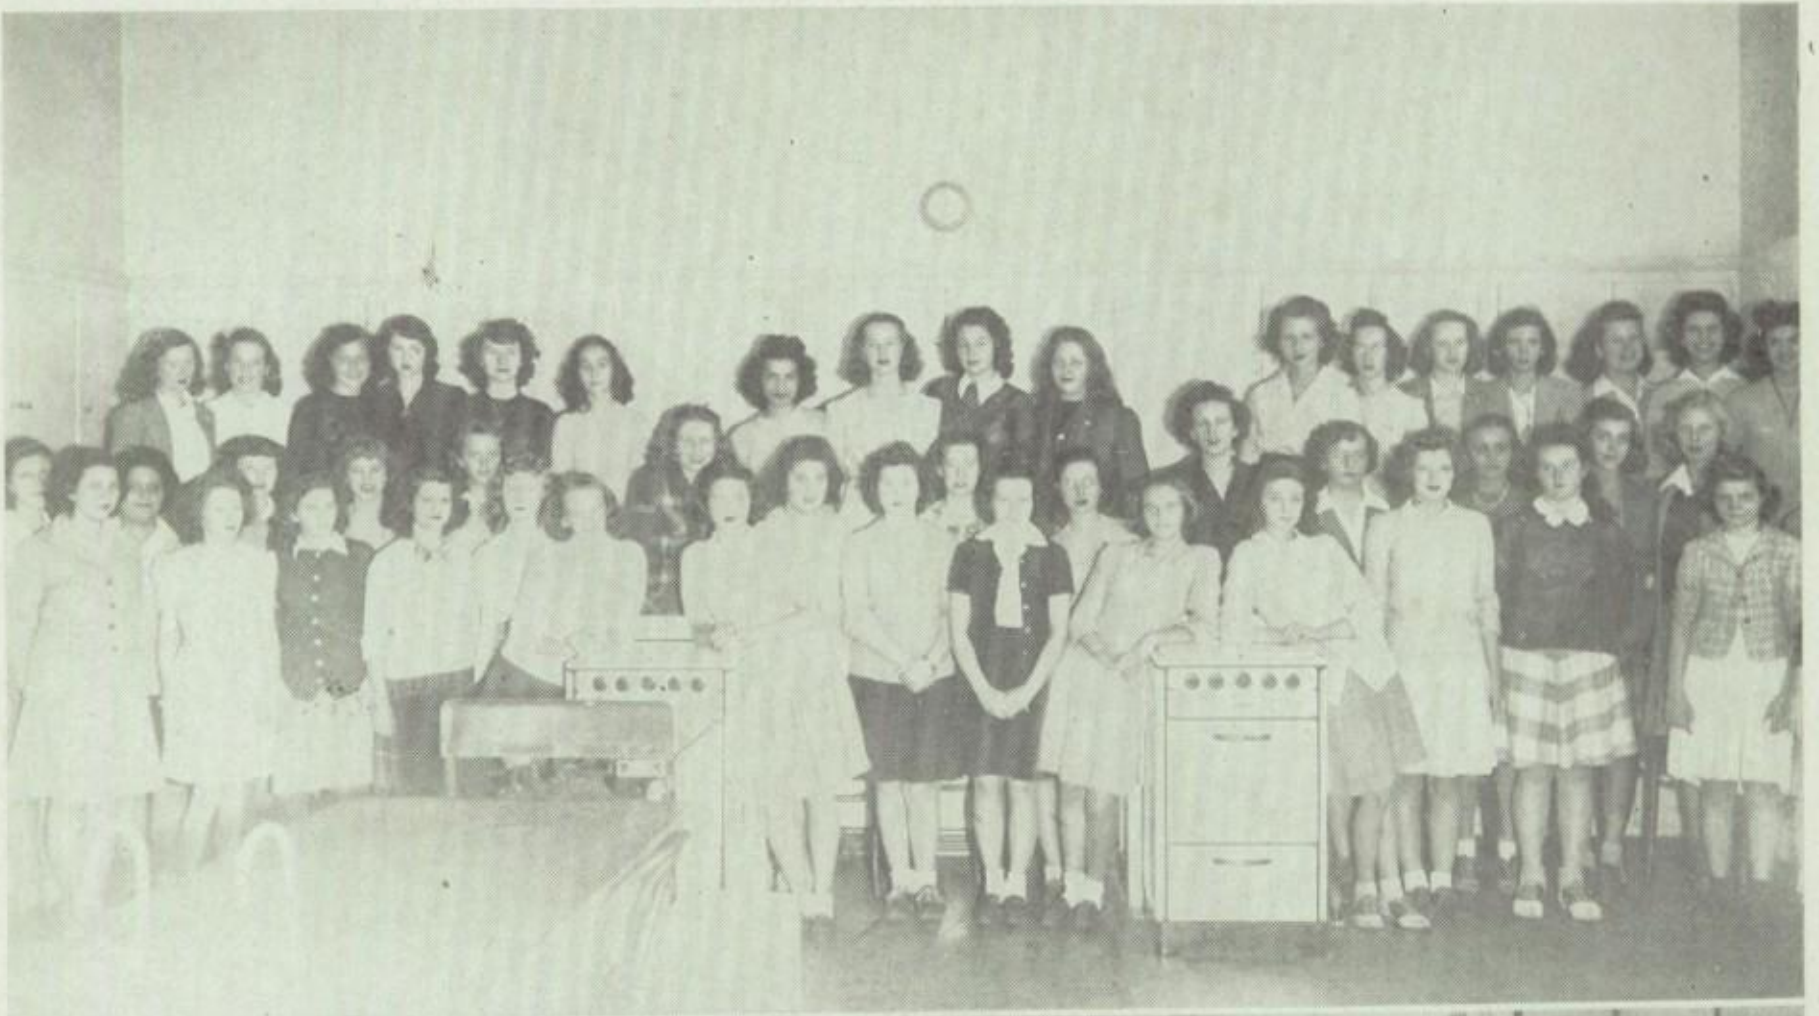

GAA

The purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association, known as the GAA, is to encourage the girls in all phases of physical education, to promote good scholarship and school spirit, to establish the ideal of health, and to develop the true spirit of sportsmanship. Letters are awarded to girls who have earned 500 points in sport participation. Miss Frances Mays is sponsor and Mary Lou Ballinger is president.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Nearly 75 girls belong to the "Future Homemakers of Virginia" under the sponsorship of Miss Sue Kelly and Mrs. Lalie Webb. Their purpose is to make a closer contact between the home and school. At the present time the club's activities are largely social.

WILL ROGERS STAMP CLUB

The Stamp Club was organized to promote the students to collect stamps and study their history. Meetings on Thursdays are held with William McCallum as president and Mr. Joseph Dellapenta, sponsor. At the meetings, the members trade duplicate stamps and compare collections.

BAND LEADERS

They lead the band at the football games with their unusual talent in stunts. James Coley (center) ably conducts the music and directs the marching, while the girls beautify the outfit with the unity in which they twirl their flags. Faithfully they practice before and after school for perfection in performance.

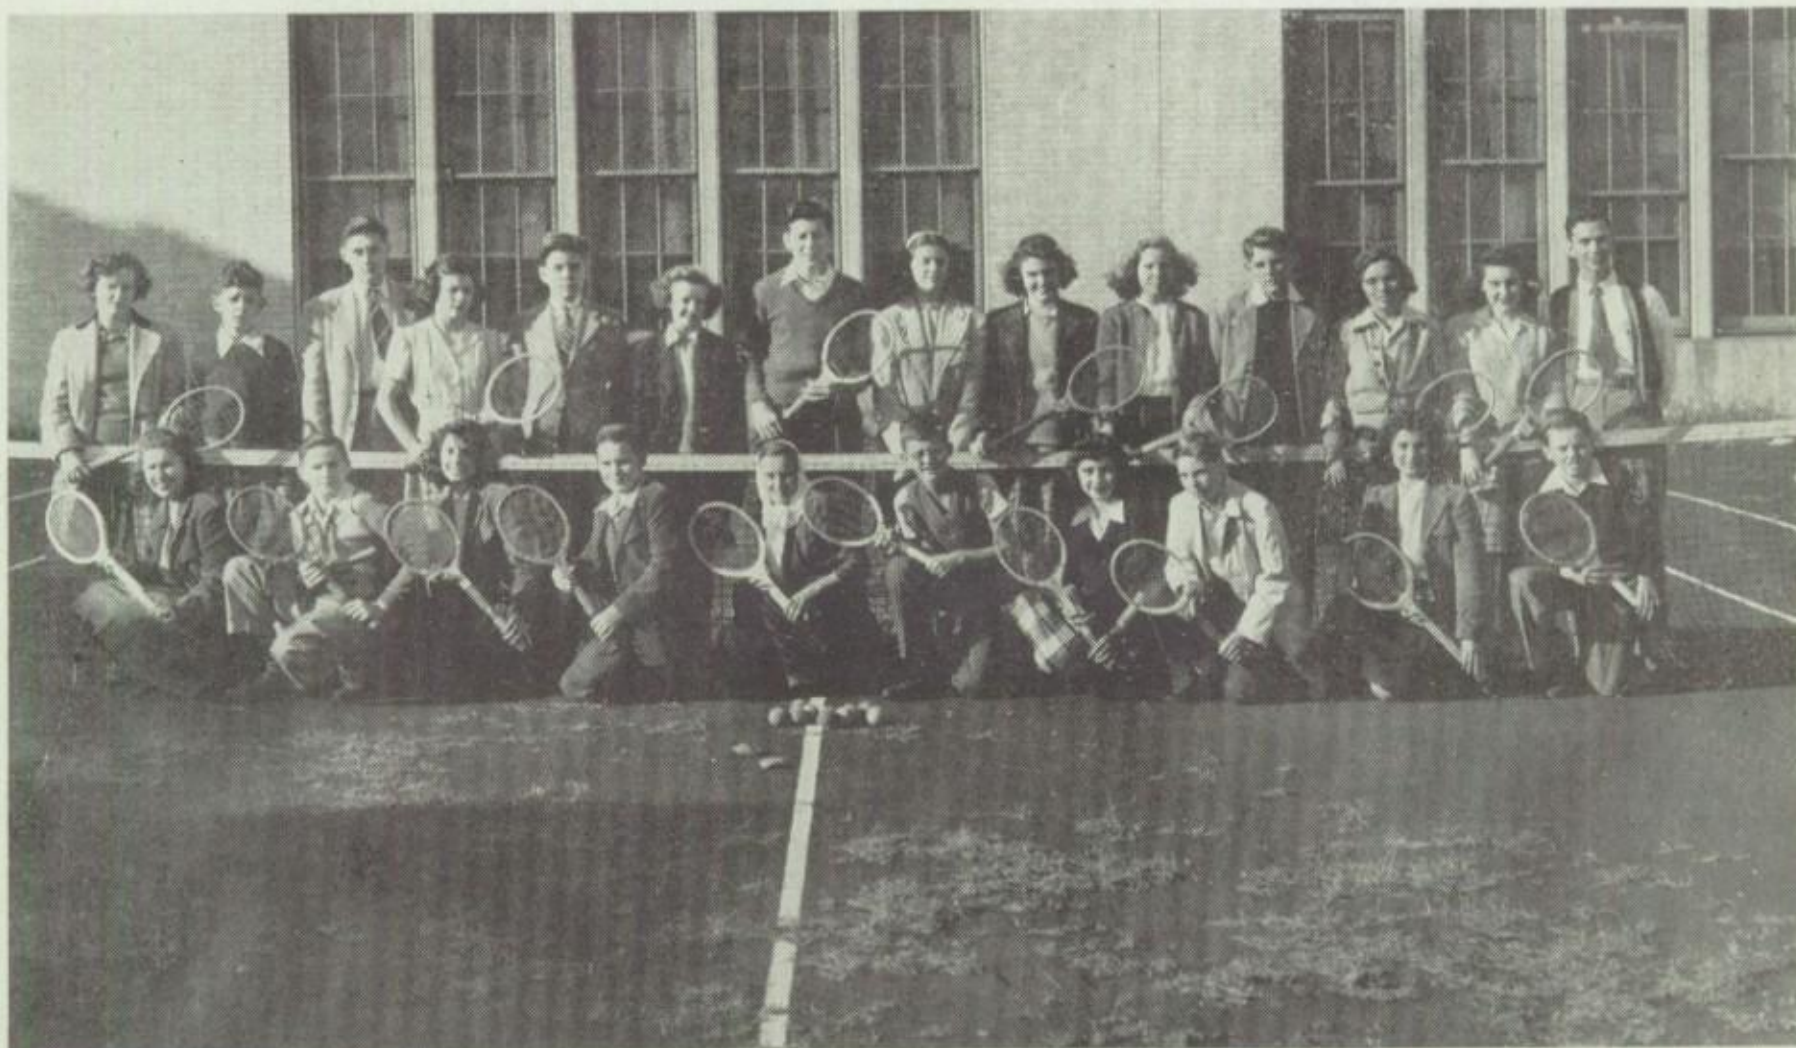

CHEERLEADERS

"Rah! Rah! Cheerleaders!"

These enthusiastic eight, clad in white, indulge in a sport all their own. They are the leaders in school spirit at every game and pep assembly where, with certain unusual antics they lead the student body in yells new and old to support the hard fighting team. Miss Chlotilde Jarman is sponsor.

TENNIS CLUB

What players! What boys and girls. The NNHS Tennis Club was revived this fall under the sponsorship and instruction of Miss Mable Wingo. It was composed of both boys and girls who played numerous matches together. Through this participation they learned and put into practice many techniques of the sport, courtesy, and developed a sense of confidence, self-criticism and perseverance.

STAGE CREW—BACKSTAGE BOYS

The creak of pulleys, the bang of hammers, voices shouting directions, "Lower on this end," "pull that drop higher" are the sounds that reach the ear, back stage. It's the stage crew in action, managed by Bob McCain and assistant, Walter Stern. These boys have the job of setting the stage for all productions put on by the school and all programs brought to the school by outside organizations. Sponsor is Miss Dorothy Crane.

FREEDOM OF RELIGION

FEATURES

Calendar

Sept. 7—Alas! Alack! miserable day! Unfortunate me! NNHS reopened its doors today!

Sept. 8—Almost knocked down and trampled on by new freshmen.

Sept. 11—Class officers elected: President, Sam Allen; Vice-President, Henry Hoppe; Secretary, Dot Dale; Treasurer, Gerry Moore; Student council Representative, Irvin Nachman.

Sept. 12—Agony! Agony! Had tooth filled. Feel physically, mentally, morally demoralized.

Sept. 13—Still in stew wanting schedule changed.

Sept. 14—Knee real sore from fall downstairs.

Sept. 19—What won't they do next? Twins for the "Best Looking Girl in the Hall of Fame!" Quite an amazing graduating class. First in NNHS to have red and white for class colors. Hampton, you know.

Sept. 22—Hoarse from first pep assembly. New cheerleaders ducky, Quack! Quack!

Sept. 23—Became too agitated when saw current heartbeat. Hopewell beat us. Just luck.

Sept. 25—Very uncouth in assembly. Mr. Stanley made with speech. Me with giggles.

Sept. 27—Gala event. Tommy Tucker in our Saunders Stadium.

Sept. 29—First edition of Beacon out. Staff hoorays!

Sept. 30—Elements of weather postpone game. Coach Harmon had good time finding "his boys" in theater.

Oct. 1—Other teams surely are lucky. Danville beat us.

Oct. 4—Freshman assembly. They behaved themselves quite well. No one fainted.

Oct. 6—Won football game with SMA. Am hoarse from shrieking cheers wildly.

Oct. 7—Shopped for new fall outfit. Bought one. Look divinely beautiful in it. (?)

Oct. 9—Fire Chief spoke in assembly. Hope for more fire drills.

Oct. 11—Had senior picture taken. Was determined not to break camera. Sure photographer wouldn't have appreciated it.

Oct. 13—Friday, survived—that's all. Broke mother's best sugar bowl. Trod on cat's handle. Maury beat us. Oh, why?

Oct. 16—Have to sit down slow-like. Bumped "it" down the steps. Mother told me there'd be days like this. But—

Oct. 18—Having more weather this year than last. Another hurricane too.

Oct. 21—Yipee! Rode Wilson for 12-6 win.

Oct. 23—Report cards. Can't sit down.

Oct. 26—Wonderful time! Second day with afternoon off from hateful classes. Car owners happy to get "A" books.

Oct. 28—Had superb time at Patrons League-Student Council Dance.

Nov. 1—General Kilpatrick confided to NNHS students. Quite an honor. Huh?

Nov. 4—Ray Rah! Team! Beat Alexandria.

Nov. 6—Sick in bed with a cold. Teachers kindly sent assignments to home.

Nov. 8—Stumped toe. Kissed thumb. Saw beau.

Nov. 10—Fall play, "Don't Take My Penny." Good! Cast acquitted themselves remarkably well.

Nov. 11—Traveled to Foreman Field. Team tangled with Granby's. They did the most tangling. N-men swell though. Sam Allen advanced from his "bachelorhood."

Nov. 13—Chopped way through fog this morning. Saw girl buy $1,000 war bond for a carton of chewing gum. Had an idea prices were going up. 'Twas a bond auction.

Nov. 15—Don't mind classes. It's the teachers who worry me. They talk so loud it keeps me awake.

Nov. 18—Crossed the river to see the team tie Maury. Good game.

Nov. 22—Everyone going in to see "Since You Went Away." Everyone coming out with red eyes.

Nov. 24—Boys got the treats at Tur-About Dance. Girls bought the tickets, paid for the cokes, and some even bought their dates carnations. School dance band played for the first time.

Nov. 26—Heard cute moron joke. Wish I was a happy little moron. Wait a minute—maybe I am.

Nov. 28—Thespians being initiated. Never saw so many people going around bowing in all my seventeen years.

Nov. 30—Thanksgiving. Won game with Wilson.

Dance for "kids" from Wilson and NN at armory.

Was stuffed to the gills. Couldn't do MUCH dancing.

Dec. 5.—Report cards. Must use more time to study or self will grace Alma Mater's halls next semester.

Dec. 6—Parents trudged up and down stairs following pupils' steps. Didn't make them go to office when they were late to class though. Gnash! Gnash!

Dec. 8—Quiz kids of Senior Class announced today. Jack Daniels, Valedictorian; Mary Lou Shaw, Salutatorian; Irvin Nachman, Third Honor Student; Boots Cumming, Highest Average, and Janet Davis, Second Highest Average. Just a bunch of genii that's all.

Dec. 10—Late to class. Teacher complained. There is absolutely no tolerance here.

Dec. 12—Shopped for Xmas presents. Am convinced feet are permanently ruined.

Dec. 15—Football boys got letters. Bobby Coleman got trophy for most outstanding player of the season. Girls got athletic letters too.

Dec. 18—Wish I was working. Would not only have money, but would miss classes. Legally.

Dec. 21—Free from school for holidays. Won basketball game with Matthew Whaley. Score: 50-6. Too bad wasn't a conference game.

Dec. 22—N. N. vs. Oceana. Score: 50-5. Getting better all the time.

Dec. 25—Christmas. Sleepy from caroling late this morning. Santa came. Was good to me. Didn't bring switches.

Dec. 31—New Year's Eve. Made oodles of resolutions which have no intentions of keeping.

Jan. 3—Twenty-eight days till diploma time. Then—well, time will tell.

Jan. 17—Commencement speakers working furiously on speeches. Play casts madly on plays.

Jan. 26—Prom! Wonderful time. Cannot remember what time arrived home. Convenient, what?

Jan. 28—Rev. Price got class serious for first time with his sermon. Feel positively ancient.

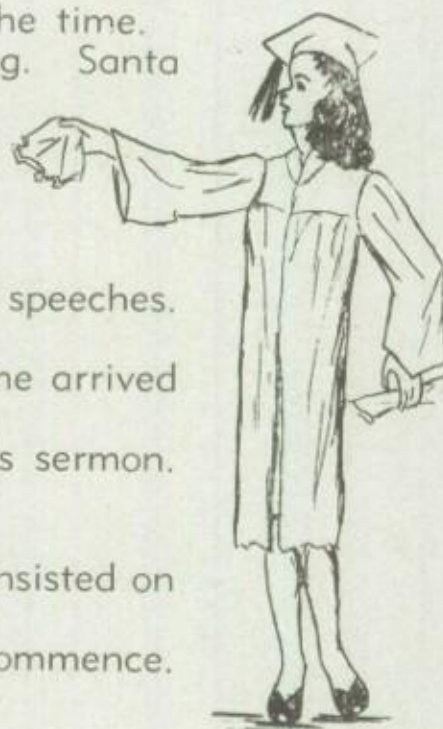

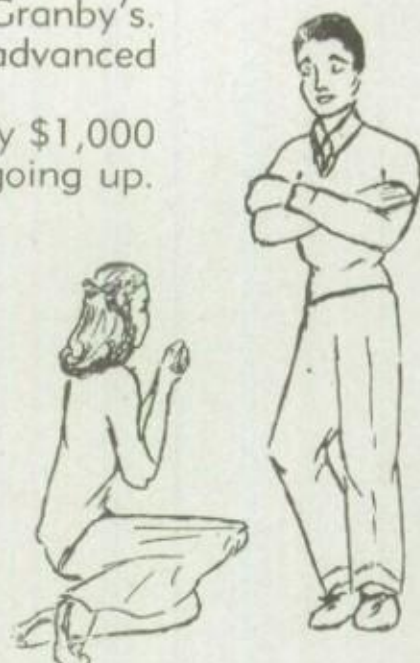

Jan. 30—Class night. Enjoyed self immensely.

Jan. 31—Marched down aisles for Senior assembly. Mother insisted on taking picture of her darling.

Feb. 1—House filled with proud relatives hoping to see me commence.

Feb. 2—Am off to Richmond.

Bye now.

The Last Will and Testament

We, the graduating class of February, 1945, having successfully survived four years in Newport News High School, do hereby proclaim this document to be our last will and testament, so help us Hannah.

ARTICLE I

To you, our faithful, patient, and enduring teachers, we first leave you completely sane. (Isn't it enough that we didn't drive you "nuts?")

Second, we leave you a brand new bunch of freshmen. Take them gently by the hand inspiring them with the fact that if Eddie Dobson can do it, so can they.

Teach them the little things that mean so much to every freshman such as "DON'T WRITE ON THE DESKS AND DON'T RUN DOWN THE HALLS." It ain't healthy.

ARTICLE II

To the office force we leave a few less blue forms, tardy slips, and sick blanks to bother with.

At first we planned to plant a time-bomb in the office so that we could leave with a big bang but, on second thought, we decided to leave our ole Alma Mater just as we found it. At least, until we get our diplomas!

ARTICLE III

To our Anchor adviser, Miss Frances Taylor, we leave a headache, a backache, and a few broken blood vessels. In general, we leave Miss Taylor a nervous wreck.

Second, we wish her the best of luck in finding a better staff next year. That is, if she can find one better than we.

ARTICLE IV

We, the "mighty" seniors, realizing that chewing gum is very hard to obtain, do hereby leave all of ours to members of the student body. You can find it under any of the desks around school.

To the 4-lows we warn, "If you want to graduate, for goodness sakes, DON'T TAKE ENGLISH 8."

To the Juniors we acknowledge the fact that they have only one more year to struggle through.

To the Sophomores we advise the plan of working hard now, for, who knows, everyone of you might be an honor student. We wish we were.

To the Freshmen we only smile and say, "Don't you wish you were we!"

ARTICLE V

Various members of the Senior class wish to leave certain items to the school and its pupils.

First, Beulah Pair and Janet Davis leave the BEACON to Stella Bicouvaris and Walter Stern with sincere wishes that it will be All-American next year.

Also, they leave the Service Honor Roll to whoever sees fit to work, and we do mean WORK, on such a worthy cause.

Second, Dot Coppersmith leaves her position as head-cheerleader to whoever deserves the honor.

Third, Ruth Fuller leaves Eddie Cooper with a sign saying, "Keep your hands off! He belongs to me!"

Fourth, Sam Allen, poet laureate of our honorable class, leaves his ability to Billy Stevenson.

He also proclaims that "Mephiste's Musings" are his own original works and hereby warns future columnists against plagiarism.

Fifth, Richard McMurrin leaves the Honor Council to the next chairman and wishes him the best of luck in trying to persuade the students of NNHS that "An honest man is the noblest work of God."

Sixth, Mary Lou Shaw gives Herbert Bateman next year's Anchor and extends to him her deepest sympathy.

Seventh, to Valley Roy, Bobby Coleman leaves his title as a "great, big, beautiful hunk of man." By the way, he doesn't include Betty Harp in any of his gifts. He thinks he'll keep her.

Eight, Harry Duff's cheerful smile is left to every student in NNHS to use when they face the "big three" because of some mischief.

Ninth, Shirley Phillips leaves her ability to "beat out the boogie" to Jimmy Daniels.

Tenth, the "Andrew Sisters," Shirley Linkous, Pat Beasley and Sylvia Cofer present their voices to Spottie Bivens, Betty Joe McWilliams and Mary Dame Stubbs.

Eleventh, Virginia Moody, "The Jitterbug," leaves her title of "best dancer" to Jean Farmer.

Twelfth, The Candler twins leave their beauty to Barbara Carter.

Thirteenth, Boots Cumming leaves her "highest average" to the Mitchell twins. (Goodness knows they need it.)

Fourteenth, Irvin Nachman, the most athletic boy in the senior class leaves his ability to his friend, Theodore Theodorsen.

Fifteenth, Henry Hoppe leaves his height to little Bobby Manning.

Sixteenth, John Sim leaves his outstanding speaking voice to the speech classes as a perfect example so they may all make "A."

ARTICLE VI

With fondest memories in our hearts and knowing that NNHS will never be quite the same without us, we now bid our able Alma Mater "Adieu" and hereby affix our signatures as a seal to this document.

The History of a Team!

September 1—The recruits of the 1944 Typhoon team turn out nearly 80 strong with plenty of old hands to build a team around.

September 15—Typhoon gridders round into shape for their opener against Hopewell the following Saturday.

September 18—Typhoon versus the Hopewell Blue Devils. Entering their initial fray of the season, the highly favored were out-fought by a determined Hopewell 11. The best run of the day came when Calvin Bridge skittered around left end for 80 yards and the only Typhoon score. Result, NN 6, Hopewell 12.

October 2—Newport News plays host to the Danville Cardinalas. This contest, scheduled for September 30, was postponed due to rain until the following Monday. The disputed Typhoon again met more than they could handle as the Red-birds rang up a 20 to 6 victory.

October 6—After a short week of practice, the Gold and Blue finally bounded into a winning column by defeating a favored Staunton Military Academy. The Typhoon offense, led by the determined will and skill of its two captains, made a 12 to 6 win over S.M.A.

October 13—Although stimulated by their late victory, the boys still seemed to lack something essential to a winning team, as the Maury Commodores crushed the local eleven 18-0. It was Maury's first conference victory and her fourth game.

October 21—Following strenuous workouts the whole week, the Typhoon travelled to Portsmouth to try their luck against Wilson, a powerful team with hopes of winning the state championship. Against what seemed to be hopeless odds, the Gold and Blue eleven completely outsmarted, outplayed and outscored the seemingly top team. On the opening kickoff Calvin Bridge received the ball and scampered some 85 yards for a touchdown. The second touchdown came in the third period on a beautiful aerial from Hopkins to Kersey. Result: NN 14; Wilson 7.

October 28—Petersburg, always a strong opponent, travelled here to take on a rejuvenated Typhoon team. The ensuing game proved to be a tough one, and although the Typhoon had better running attacks, Petersburg had better luck and scored a 6-0.

November 4—Rebounding from their previous encounter, the Gold and Blue soundly defeated a strong Alexandria team by 27-6. The Typhoon mainstays in Lin Ilish, Bobby Stortz, and Calvin Bridge coordinated beautifully to run up the score. In the final quarter, Rappold knifed into the Alexandria backfield to receive a lateral and dash 30 yards to pay dirt.

November 11—In travelling to Norfolk, the Typhoon found its strongest opponent of the season in Granby High's Blue Comets. Although defeated, the Gold and Blue fought all the way, giving Granby a real battle. Result: NN 0; Granby 14.

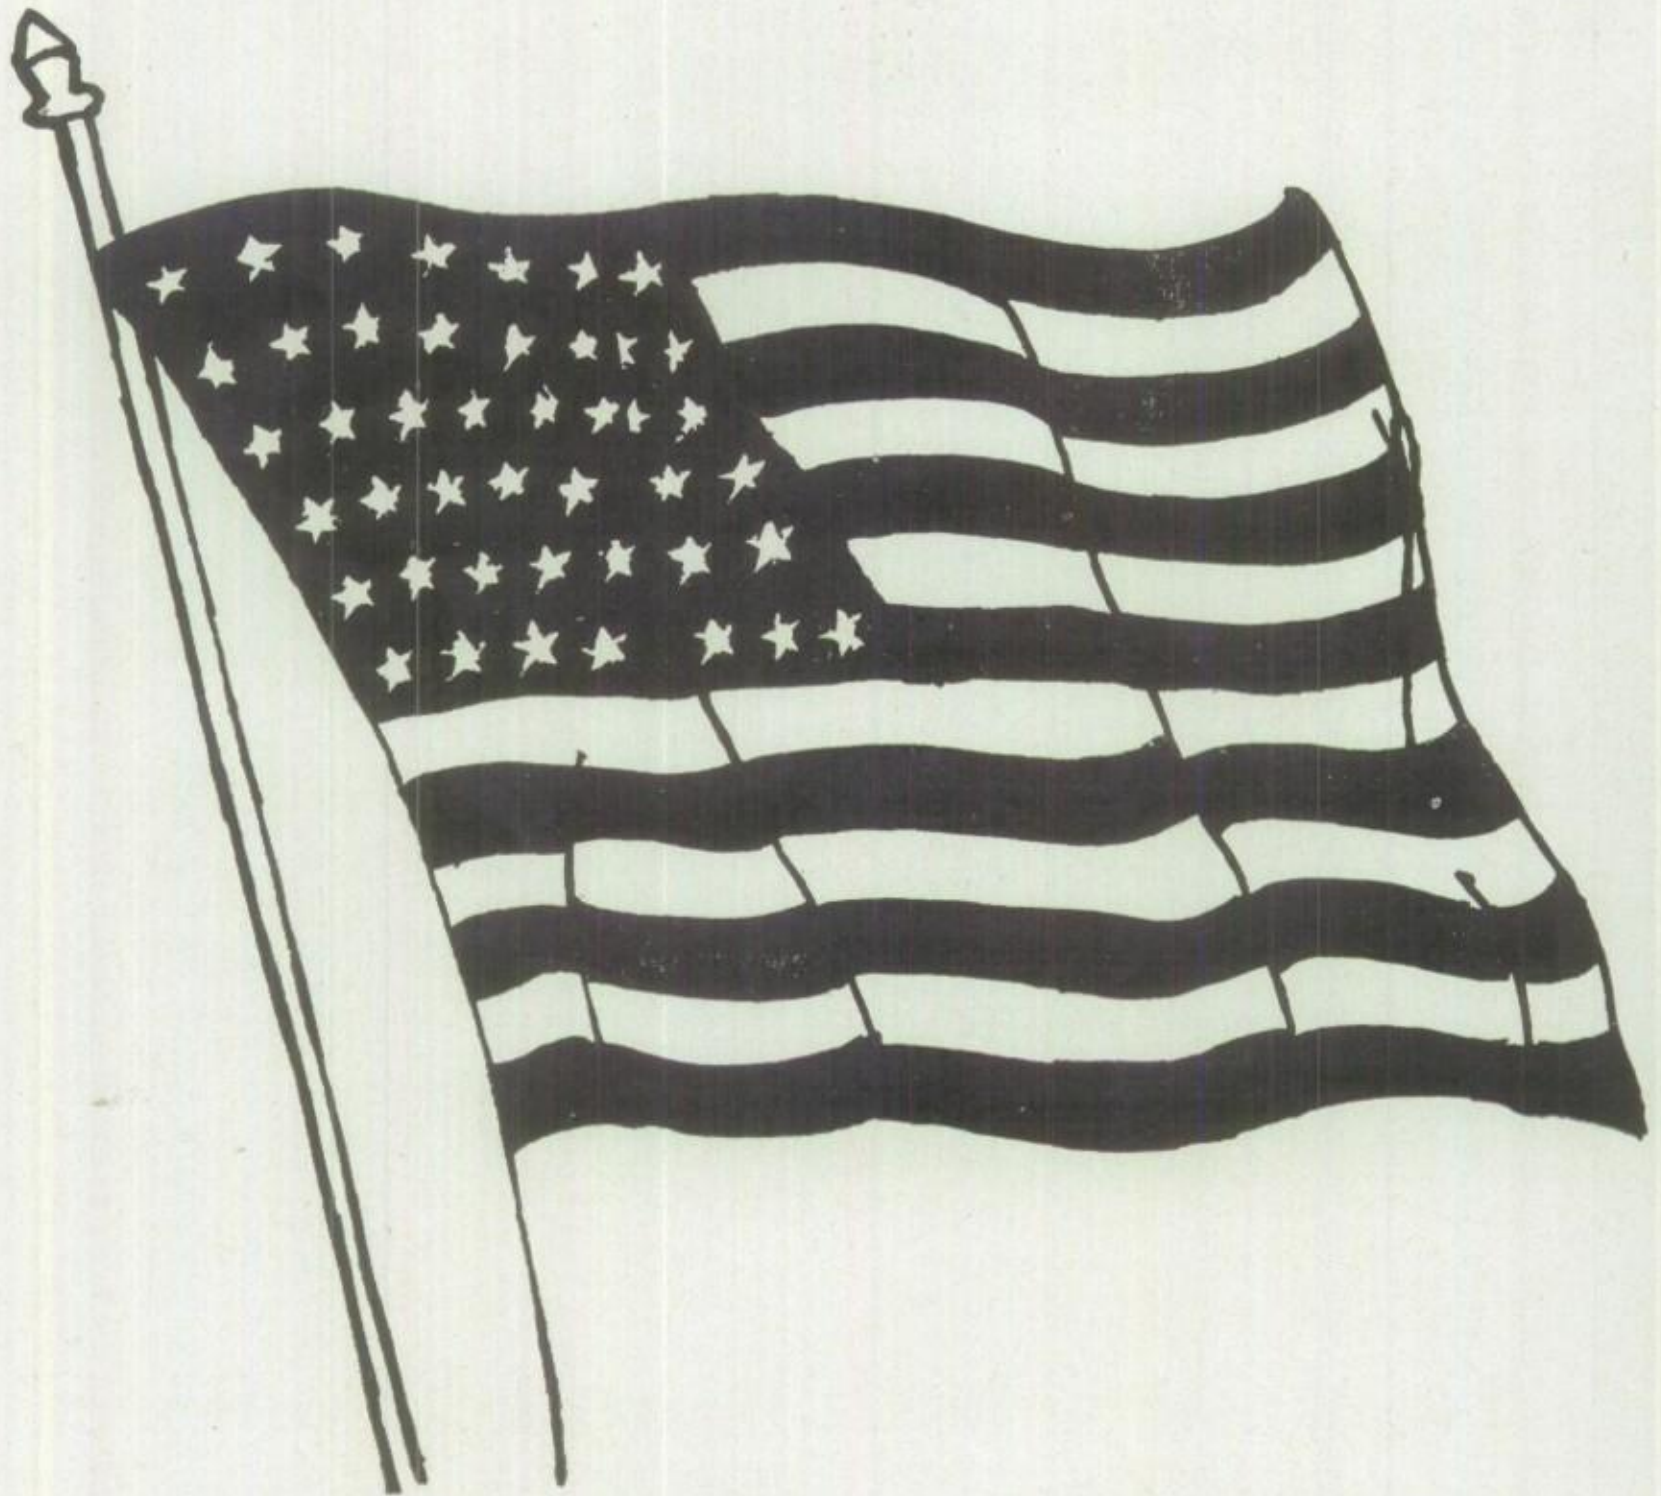

November 18—In their second engagement of the season with the Typhoon, Maury High, confident of a second victory, was outplayed by the Gold and Blue boys. The game ended in a 14-14 deadlock. Both Typhoon scores came from passes from Hopkins to Kersey and Haskins.

November 30—Entering their traditional Turkey-day rivalry, a slight underdog, the Typhoon scored a well-earned 6-0 victory over the Wilson Presidents on the Gold and Blue field. This contest represented the final game of the season for both teams.
